We will be working with Melbourne Museum to provide a platform of information sharing, collaboration and utilising of resources from both organisations to facilitate a better communication stream. Board member, Jodii Geddes, spoke to those present, of the 2-year conversations that had taken place to get a partnership agreement, of which the board and staff were pleased.

Balit Dhumba June 2019

June was a huge month for the Balit Dhumba programme, with the second live broadcast of the 3KND/Darebin Council/Banyule Council community treaty discussions taking place from the Preston Library.

Nearly 100 community members attended the event, which was moderated by 3KND Treaty Correspondent Charles Pakana.

The success of that event, and the one held during May at Watsonia Library, is such that 3KND has already been approached by two other Councils to partner-up and follow suit.

The big news during June, though, was the announcement from the Victorian Treaty Advancement Commission that voting, enrolment and candidate nomination dates had been pushed out by several months. Within 24 hours of the news hitting the streets, Charles met with the Commissioner for an in-depth interview that was aired on the 19th of June.

A main focus during June has been on commencing a schedule of interviews with Assembly candidates from around the State. Already, three candidate interviews have been aired, with an approximate 20 more to be scheduled over the next two months.

Balit Dhumba goes to air every Wednesday on 3KND between 11am and midday.

Treaty Conversations at Preston Library

The experienced panel of Jill Gallagher Victorian Treaty Advancement Commissioner, Marcus Stewart Federation of Victorian Traditional Owner Corporations and Michelle Isles Co-Chair of Reconciliation Victoria brought their knowledge and conversations to the table.
Welcome to country was performed by Uncle Bill Nicholson a Wurundjeri Woi - Wurrung elder followed by the Mayor of Darebin Susan Rennie.
The large crowd presented questions to the panel resulting in a robust exchange between all. This event was brought about by Bunyule City Council, Darebin City Council, Reconciliation Victoria and 3KND who broadcast the event live across the network.

Head to the 3KND website to hear the full broadcast at the Treaty Conversations at the Preston Library.

Native Title Conference At The MCG

Amazing vibe at the Native Title Conference held at the Melbourne Cricket Ground. Beautiful and heartfelt Welcome to the Country of the Wurundjeri Woi-wurrung People of the Kulin Nation by greatly respected Elder Aunty Di Kerr, with wonderful didgeridoo playing by Robert Bamblett. Also welcomed to conference was Aunty Gail Mabo, especially important given the event had taken place on Mabo Day.
Victorian Minister for Aboriginal Affairs Gavin Jennings addressed hundreds gathered at the MCG. Beautiful and important chant/song given by Judge Carrie Wainwright, Maori Land Court.
Incredible panel included Professor Marcia Langton (Assoc. Provost Uni of Melbourne), June Oscar, Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander Social Justice Commissioner, Judge Carrie Wainwright (Maori Land Court), Victorian Treaty Advancement Commission, Commissioner Jill Gallagher, and Professor Megan Davis (Pro Vice Chancellor, Uni of NSW), with moderator Jason Mifsud, Chairman of the Federation of Victorian Traditional Owner Corporations.
